Property Description

This fully renovated villa in Monte Halcones, Benahavís, blends modern elegance with timeless Andalusian character. Set across three levels, it offers privacy, stunning sea and mountain views, and excellent access to the Costa del Sol. The home features seven spacious bedrooms, each with its own en-suite bathroom. Light-filled interiors combine marble floors, warm wooden accents, and contemporary furnishings. An open-plan living and dining area connects seamlessly to outdoor terraces, while the designer kitchen with Danespan appliances is both functional and stylish. The ground floor opens to a large terrace with a pool and BBQ area, perfect for family time or entertaining. With a southeast orientation, every level enjoys natural light and panoramic views. Secure parking, storage, high-end alarm systems, and double glazing ensure convenience and peace of mind. Monte Halcones offers a tranquil setting with quick access to international schools, shops, golf courses, and the coastal highway. Marbella, Fuengirola, and Málaga Airport are all within easy reach.

With seven en-suite bedrooms, generous living spaces, and prime location, this residence is both a luxurious family home and a lifestyle investment on the Costa del Sol.
